We say Good Bye and Thank you to the YWCA Choralettes

The PTA Mother Singers became the YWCA Choralettes in the '60's some time , over the years friendships were made, and lots of times to do sing outs, since so many businesses in Hastings had parties at Christmas. The last few years the sing outs have been for the Church Women United and retirement homes. Our music has been Broadway shows, spirituals, hymns and suggestions by members.

Over the years our directors have been Evalyn Udlock, Millard Cates, Don Goodrich, Duane Johnson, Georgia Gilley, and Liz Hasley.

Women who shared their piano expertise were Betty Williams, Oline Marvel, Martha Boyd, Barb Zaroban and others.

Two ladies who have been long time members are Delores Runcie for 60 years, and Wihlma Price for 56 years.

This has been one of the oldest groups meeting at the YWCA! It's been a group recognized in the community and they have enjoyed the years of sharing their talents!

Community Organizing 101:

Are you concerned with the state of the world? Are you frustrated that your efforts seem to go nowhere? Do you want to analyze how to better recruit volunteers, build power, and achieve victories? Jessica Palys, veteran organizer with over 10 years of experience, is offering 3 skills training workshops this July to help you grow your cause. You are invited to attend any or all of Community Organizing 101 Trainings on July 13, 20 and 27 in the YWCA Great Room.

Session 1, July 13: On Self-Interest and Building Public Relationships

Session 2, July 20: On Power and Public Anger

Session 3, July 27: On Targets, Tactics and Issue Goals

Sessions run from: 9:30am-2:30pm

Each session will build upon the training of the previous one but are valuable separately. Cost is $30 per session, or $75 for all 3, which includes materials, facility use and lunch.

The Jean Thom Scholarship

In memory of Jean Thom, the YWCA will be starting an annual scholarship for young women in high school to honor her memory.

Thank you to Leroy Thom, Jean Thom and T&L Foundation along with numerous donors in our community for contributing to this memorial at the YWCA.

Stay tuned for more details!

New ZONE Director

We are pleased to welcome Amber Price into her new role as director of the Zone After School program for the 2019-2020 school year starting September 1st! Amber is a graduate of Hastings High School, a two term AmeriCorps Alumna, and has been a member of the YWCA family since she was a little girl. She is currently pursuing a degree in Business Administration at Central Community College and instructs at the YWCA School of Dance. Amber is excited to step into a leadership role at the Zone, where she looks forward to "helping kids out and leading them on to a better lifestyle." She also enjoys spending time with the Zone students and continuing to build meaningful

Teen Outreach Program at the Zone meets Wednesday (according to HPS schedule) from 3 to 4 pm! This club for middle schoolers focuses on social-emotional learning and skill building through an evidence based curriculum, empowering teens with the tools and opportunities to avoid risky behaviors and become leaders with a powerful vision for the future. TOP also has the power to change communities, thanks in part to TOP's unique focus on connecting teens to their communities through transformational community service learning projects. All 6th, 7th, & 8th graders are invited to visit the Zone and join TOP Club! Funding for TOP at the YWCA is provided through Nebraska Department of Health and Human

AmeriCorps Positions

YWCA Adams County and Adams County Teen Court are looking for looking for future AmeriCorps members to serve the Hastings community through positive youth development, nutrition education, and restorative justice!
